

Here we are alone again at the World Congress For Deeper Personal Relations swinging curious liaison caesarian section of the mind grinding hips may spark but after making it has it made any difference existential courage is the accident we haven't fallen down electrified psyches are only easier to see through nothing matters except the remembrance that nothing matters and the act of saying so but does it matter that we wish it were not so.
